Raven And Driscoll Surrender

Shanghai, Aug. 31.
Warrants were issued this morning for the arrest of Frank Jay Raven and John Warner Brown, Vice-President and a director of the American Oriental Finance Corporation, and Alfred Hamilton Driscoll, Secretary and Treasurer, on 15 charges of embezzlement relating to alleged fraudulent and felonious conversion of securities and cash.

Ball was set for Raven at $10,000 (U.S.) and for Brown in the same amount, while Driscoll was asked to supply $5,000 (U.S.) as bail.

The District Attorney, Mr. Feltham Watson, has telegraphed Governor-General Murphy of the Philippines, requesting him to arrest Brown, who is acting as trustee for the American Oriental Finance Corporation in Manila.

Learning by telephone of the warrants for their arrest, Raven and Driscoll appeared in the United States Court, and are being held until they provide bail. They were released early in the afternoon after the necessary bail had been supplied.

Raven provided a bond in the shape of a cashier's cheque on the Chase Bank, while in the case of Driscoll the Judge approved of a bond signed by Mrs. Julius Kleffel, wife of the former manager of the American Oriental Banking Corporation, listing her home as security.

WARSHIP IN COLLISION

Slightly Damaged

London, Aug. 30.
H.M.S. Ramillies has collided with the North German Lloyd liner Eisenach, nine miles from Dover, according to naval wireless reports. The Ramillies has suffered minor damage above water forward. It is not believed there have been any casualties.

The collision occurred at 7.40 p.m. The Ramillies reported at 11.30 p.m. that she was still standing by the German vessel, upon which she had fired her searchlights. A gale was blowing.

Lloyds office at Dover states that the Ramillies has reported the Eisenach requiring immediate assistance and a tug left Dover at 9 p.m.

TUGS ARRIVE

Two tugs were alongside the Eisenach at 12.30 a.m. The German vessel's bows are stove in and she is making water, but her bulkheads are holding. She is proceeding slowly to Dover. The Ramillies is keeping close to her.

The Eisenach was towed into Dover at 1 a.m.

SOLDIER IN TROUBLE

Women Assaulted And Robbed

Aldershot, Aug. 31.
Extraordinary allegations of deliberate running down of pedestrians were made by the prosecution in charges of murder, causing grievous bodily harm and robbery, against Lance-Corporal Mortimer, of the 1st Battalion The Royal Welch Regiment.

It is alleged that four young women, while cycling on lonely roads, were knocked off their machines by stolen motor cars driven by Mortimer, who allegedly afterwards assaulted and robbed them.

Two women, Mrs. Series and Miss Boyes, were run down, assaulted and robbed on the afternoon of August 7. The next day Mortimer did not attend parade.

The same morning Miss Oakes was run down and fatally injured.

During the afternoon the fourth girl, Miss Harwood, was run down, assaulted and robbed.

A police car picked up a stolen car driven by Mortimer and a hair-raising chase at 65 miles an hour ensued. The pursuit continued through the narrow streets of Guildford, and finally Mortimer was held up by a traffic block. His car mounted the pavement and collided with a stationary vehicle, whereupon he was arrested.

In a statement after his arrest, Mortimer admitted driving two of the three cars, and said that if women were knocked down, it was owing to drink and the heat. He said that he suffered fits of mental blanks.

The case was adjourned.

SPEED RECORD BROKEN

Campbell To Try Again

Bonnevillie, Aug. 30.
The long salt flats of Utah today were the scene of another speed triumph when the American racing ace, "Wild Bill" Jenkins, broke the record set up a few days ago by the British driver, Cobb.

Jenkins, in a four hundred horse-power machine, started on an attempt last night to beat Cobb's twenty-four hour record. The American, at the 2,000 miles mark, had averaged 138.53 miles per hour, which was a slight improvement on Cobb's time for that distance; Cobb covered 2,000 miles at an average speed of 137.87 miles per hour.

With approximately another 1,300 miles to go Jenkins is conceded a very good chance of bettering the Englishman's speed for the whole course.

Meanwhile, Sir Malcolm Campbell and his giant racing machine, Bluebird, is here to attack his own speed record and set a world mark of 300 miles per hour if he can. He is ready to attempt a record immediately, he says. The Bluebird is being tuned for the run and is in perfect condition. Sir Malcolm is confident.

JENKINS SUCCEEDS

Utah, Aug. 31.
Jenkins' average speed was 135.41 miles per hour for the twenty-four hours, beating Cobb's world record of 134.85 miles per hour.

GARETH JONES

Victim Of Soviet?

London, Aug. 30.
The suggestion that Mr. Gareth Jones, the British journalist, may have been shot on orders from Moscow, was made to-day by an anti-Communist publication subsidised by the German Government, and which supplies free information on Soviet Russia to the German press.

It says: "Jones' past may explain the attitude of the bandits." Jones was an expert on the situation in Soviet Russia. The account of his impressions conjures up horrible images. He was the first to tell the world the truth about the famine, but his story was denied by the Soviets.

HUMAN POWER
AEROPLANEExperiment Proves Successful

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Frankfurt on Main Aug. 30.

An unaided human flight—the age long dream of mankind—since the unfortunate end which overtook the first mythical experimenter Icarus—at last is an accomplished fact, if only with a modest beginning, when the gliding pilot Duennell covered a distance of 185 metres at a height from the ground of one metre in a pedal propelled airplane.

The flight took place under official control late on Thursday evening and was not published until the second flight yesterday to prove that it was not an isolated achieve-

TUNNEL DISASTER
VICTIMS

(Special to the "Hong Kong Daily Press" (Copyright).)

Berlin, August 30.
Before the coffins of the victims of the underground tunnel disaster in Berlin were conveyed to the various cemeteries for separate burial after the conclusion of an impressive funeral service at Berlin Cathedral, Minister Goebbels and Fey held short addresses of condolence and encouragement to the survivors and a huge crowd assembled in the square in front of the cathedral.

"The Fuehrer asks me to bring to you his greeting," said Fey "Yesterday evening he said to me: Tell these men and women who are mourning I am with you I greet you and I think of you in your deep grief."

"It is seldom that the whole nation with tensely sorrowful hearts have been so affected by the event as by the arduous and difficult work of unearthing these victims. May their survivors rest assured that the whole nation participates in their grief. The dead who lie before us ought to know that their names will not be forgotten."

LUCERNE TRAGEDY

Berne, August 30.
The authorities of Kuessnacht, a village near which Queen Astrid was killed have erected a cross at the place where the accident occurred and a representative of the canton Schwyz and Kuessnacht each deposited a wreath at the foot of the cross.

The King's car is now being brought to the garage at Kuessnacht where for the time being it is in the hands of the Swiss authorities. The right side is completely destroyed and the steering gear is completely damaged.

POPE'S STATEMENT

Rome, August 30.
A special edition of the "Observatore Romano" has been published with quotations of several parts from papers of recent speech to nurses attending the International Congress here.

The editorial comment which points out that the speech has been "incompletely reported by some of the papers" seems to indicate that the Vatican is dissatisfied with the interpretation given to the Pope's remarks on his attitude to the Abyssinian struggle by the Italian Press.

The Vatican organ stresses that the view of the Pope is that the need for expansion is present, but to attempt to enforce same at the cost of others cannot be justified.

ITALIAN CENSORSHIP

Rome, Aug. 30.
All news from Italian colonies have been placed under strict censorship by a decree issued by the Governor of the Italian Somaliland.

Every communication whether by letter, telephone, or telegraph must be first submitted to the newly created press and propaganda bureau. As yet however it is not clear whether this measure affects only Italians or also foreign correspondents.

ment due to any chance or set favourable circumstances.

In the second flight though even against a slight wind, the previous attempt was improved upon, 235 metres being flown, again at a height of one metre. At the third attempt the machine tipped forward on the nose and was slightly damaged.

The propeller is driven by a pedal mechanism similar to that of a bicycle connected by an appropriate gearing. The energy for a start is obtained by a catapult apparatus which the pilot winds up himself. This is released and pedalling commenced when the machine is up in the air.

The Polytechnic Society of Frankfurt offered a prize of 5000 marks for the first person who makes a flight in a plane propelled exclusively by his own energy over a circular course of five hundred metres, round two pylons. This is a renewal of a prize offered two years ago and which was the first incentive to the two engineers, Haesler and Villiger, to construct the present machine.

MORE MANOEUVRES

Rome, Aug. 30.
After the completion of the great army manoeuvres in the northern frontier of Italy, according to reports current here it is intended to carry out large scale naval and air manoeuvres in the Mediterranean as an answer to the British military reinforcements at Malta and the Suez Canal.

Large naval and air forces have already been assembled it is stated, while 80 submarines are said to have been instructed to be in readiness for manoeuvres off the South coast of Sicily near Malta.

SOVIET MANOEUVRES

Moscow, Aug. 31.
Summer manoeuvres are now being carried out by the various commands of the Red army. The War Commissar, M. Voroshiloff paid surprise visit to the White Russian command, which borders on the north-eastern Polish frontier, and arranged the air force manoeuvres, of which distinguished feature was a test of the ability of Soviet fliers to respond to a sudden alarm and surprise orders.

According to the military periodical "Krasnaya Svesda," M. Voroshiloff was thoroughly satisfied with the success of these manoeuvres, which were also watched with no little interest from the Polish side of the frontier.

BALBO'S VISIT

Paris, Aug. 31.
The doubts entertained here as to the "purely private" nature of Air Marshal Balbo's recent visit seem to be confirmed by a despatch from the "Paris Soir" correspondent at Rome.

Marshal Balbo, it appears, on arriving at Rome on Thursday from Paris proceeded direct to Bologna, where he was immediately received by Signor Mussolini.

Well-informed circles in Rome affirm that Marshal Balbo reported on the results of his Paris trip, which was of a "commercial" character, his object having been to conduct negotiations regarding the delivery of war materials to Italy.

LITTLE ENTENTE
DECISION

Rome, Aug. 31.
The greatest satisfaction is expressed in political circles here at the decision said to have been taken at the conference of the Little Entente at Bled to arrange a meeting between the Yugoslav Premier, M. Stojadinovich, and Signor Mussolini, more especially in view of the tension which has long been prevailing between the two countries.

The object of this meeting is stated to be not only an improvement of the Italo-Yugoslav relations, but also to promote the co-operation of the Little Entente with Signor Mussolini in the Danubian Valley.

The visit of the Yugoslav Premier is expected after the League of Nations meeting is finished.

DEATH DIARY OF THE AIR

(Special Air Mail Service)
London, Aug. 10.

The most dramatic diary in the history of aviation has just been made public here.

It was written by M. Vanlanglen, the Dutch journalist, while the giant Douglas Royal Dutch air liner, with 12 others, was hurtling through snow and rain to its doom in the Swiss Alps on July 20.

In this crash two Britons—Comdr. Arthur J. Watts, D.S.O., and Mr. L. M. Nesbitt, the explorer and author—were among the killed.

The liner was flying from Milan, to Amsterdam, and the diary opens with this entry:

"We have just taken off from Milan, and soon we will cross the Alps." Then comes the following:

"Over the Alps. Rain beats down. We can see very little below. Our height is now 12,000ft. 'We are climbing hard to try and get above these storm clouds—can see that we are now 13,500 ft."

"Now we are up to 13,800. We seem to be above the clouds. There is a blue sky."
"Still, we climb—14,100ft, now 15,000. But here comes the rain again. It grows heavier. No more blue sky."

AN EXPLOSION
"It is now 12.30 by my watch. An explosion. Rain, rain. We are descending rapidly."

"The indicator shows 12,000. As I write we still drop—11,400ft. now. Rain changes to snow. I can see nothing. We are now 9,800ft.—more snow."

"9,000ft, 8,400ft, 7,500ft. How we are dropping. Lightning. This shows the mountain peaks. We are just above them. Lightning again. Now 6,300ft."

Here the diary ends. The great machine crashed into the Alps at a height of 6,200 feet.

These notes, which began in a clear steady handwriting developed into a crawl, and ended abruptly with a faint pencil mark across the paper—made at the very moment of death.

THE POWERS AND CHINA

(Special Air Mail Service)
London, Aug. 10.

Sir Frederick Leith-Ross, Chief Economic Adviser to the Government, left England yesterday by the Empress of Britain on his mission to China.

France and the United States are sending similar missions, and the object in each case is to examine the financial situation of China and the possibilities of assisting the development of the country's resources by means of a joint loan.

The question has been discussed at a consultation in Washington, but the British representative will proceed via Canada direct to Tokyo. There, he will have important discussions with the Japanese Foreign Office, as it is the proposal of the British Government that the four Powers, Britain, Japan, France, and the United States, should all be associated in the suggested effort for China's economic rehabilitation.

JAPAN AND LOAN PROPOSAL

It is quite expected that Japan will be ready to enter into discussions with Britain on a somewhat different basis than to contemplate the question of an international loan. In view of the Japanese claim to a dominant position in China, reports from Tokyo during the past week suggest that the joint loan proposal will be unwelcome, and that Japan will prefer to enter into a bargain with Britain alone, offering trade facilities in exchange for the removal of obstacles to Japanese trade in the British colonies.

Sir Frederick Leith-Ross's mission, however, is confined to the obtaining of information, and no decisions will, of course, be taken until he has reported to London.

In view of the present disorders in China and the state of its finances through the draining of silver to the United States, a condition of a loan, should any eventually be arranged, would be guaranteed that the proceeds would be devoted to the real economic development of the country.

LESSON SERMON

First Church Of Christ Scientist

"Christ Jesus" was the subject

the Lesson Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September, 1st, 1935.

The Golden Text was "The law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ" (John

1:17).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, be cause he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised." (Luke

4:18).

The Lesson Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook: "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary

Baker Eddy: "Hold perpetually

this thought, that it is the spiritual idea, the Holy Ghost, and Christ, which enables you to demonstrate, with scientific certainity, the rule of healing based upon its divine Principle, Love, underlying, and encompassing all true being."

CINEMA TRADE NOTICES

IT'S A COP

British and Dominions have pursued a new policy in the Sydney Howard picture "It's a Cop," which is the main attraction at the King's Theatre on Tuesday.

This policy, initiated with "Trouble," is to present the star against a lavish background of entertainment. In "Trouble" the audience was taken on a complete Mediterranean cruise, with an excursion into the native quarter of Tangiers and with the usual deck sports, ship's concert and fancy dress ball all adding their attractions to the picture.

"It's a Cop" has been made to a similar recipe, with scenes in Limehouse, a hectic car-chase, and sequences in an up-to-date roadhouse offering entertainment in themselves as a complement to the antics of Sydney Howard.

A novelty in the roadhouse sequence is that the almost inevitable cabaret has for once been avoided, and instead of dancing the patrons indulge in roller-skating.

There is a roller-skating carnival with a sensational act by the famous Bavaria Trio as one of the highlights. Both Sydney Howard and Dorothy Boucher appear on skates in this sequence. Dorothy Boucher as part of the roadhouse entertainment and Sydney Howard as an unwilling

GIGOLETTE

Sixteen complete changes of costume are shown by Adrienne Ames in her latest film, "Gigolette," coming soon to the Queen's Theatre.

Street dresses, evening gowns, dance dresses and sport frocks, worn by the vivacious star present a gallery of what the well-dressed woman will wear for spring and summer. Complete accessories, from gloves and handbags to millinery and shoes, make "Gigolette" a veritable fashion show. Miss Ames, who was recruited to the films from New York's exclusive Park Avenue, belongs to Gotham's smart set, and is recognized both in and out of theatrical circles as the possessor of an undeniable "chic," which accounts for the interest that fashion stylists display in her motion picture appearances.

Among the lovely frocks which she wears in "Gigolette" is a smart white evening dress, with an unusual clasp treatment over the shoulders. Another distinctive creation is a satin evening gown, distinguished by intricate drapery. A brown wool frock, with collar and cuffs of green and brown chenille, is predicted to elicit high contingents of "Gigolette" audiences.

AT THE KING'S

Under The Pampas Moon

The Fox picture "Under The Pampas Moon" which opened its season at the King's Theatre on Saturday is featured by three new song hits and some hard riding. In it are starred Warner Baxter and Ketti Gallian and the role which Warner Baxter plays is the type in which he rose to popularity.

In the midst of a cast which really supports him he makes of "Cesar Campo" a very human and likeable reality, whose whole hearted happiness is as infectious as his native faith in his fellow man is alarming.

We see him first in the Pampas a care free soul and after he had almost lost his life in a race in which he had a 100 pesos wagered on it we see him wandering around South America in search of his much beloved horse which was stolen away from him after the race.

The climax arrives when the gaucho having suffered deception and maltreatment in Buenos Aires, calls in his comrades from the Pampas and meets out some most satisfying Pampas justice.

The greater part of the story is delectable. His "coeur d'amour" was played by Ketti Gallian whose acting will surely find a place in "stardom" ere long.

She sings and hums alluringly as an entertainer in a night club. Incidentally the fare in the night club is far above the average and a dance number entitled "Cobra Tango" by Veloz and Yolanda captivated the merits of the audience.

There is one weakness in the show and that is that the actors were unable to continue in their South American dialogue throughout. Snatches of Americanisms and English were heard now and then. The picture on the whole should please and the scenes of Pampas life and gaiety are well reproduced. "N"

DRAGON MURDER CASE

At The Alhambra

One of the most baffling of murder mystery dramas was unfurled at the Alhambra Theatre yesterday when "The Dragon Murder Case" was screened for the first time.

The story evolves around a series of mysterious crimes apparently committed by some prehistoric monster. It is full of thrills and suspense and until Philo Vance played by Warren William comes on the scene, is the culprit finally detected.

Supporting Warren William are Eugene Pallette and Robert McWade who played the parts of Sgt. Heath and District Attorney Markham respectively. These two players supplied most of the mirth and laughter.

Margaret Lindsay has the leading female role and others in that case are Lily Talbot, Robert Barrat, Helen Lowell, Dorothy Tree, George E. Stone, William Davidson, George Meeker and others.

The picture is full of thrills and excitement and affords the audience the opportunity of turning sleuth at the same time.

MURDER IN THE FLEET

At The Queen's

Laughs and thrills blend, and excitement, romance and comedy run rampant in "Murder in the Fleet," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's new detective thriller with a warship as its locale, opened last night to delighted audiences at the Queen's Theatre.

The story deals with murders on board, visitors and crew impounded while a young lieutenant turns detective, trails a killer, and after a desperate fight corners him. Major thrills are the fight with the criminal in a flooded powder magazine as the water slowly rises, the strange killing of the government engineer, the chase through the ship's compartments, the episode of the live wire, and the race against time to install a firing gear.

Robert Taylor and Joan Parker share romance and thrills alike in the picture, there are also plenty of laughs in the story; there would have to be, what with Ted Henly, Una Merkel and Nat Pendleton in the cast.

PENANG'S NEW HOSPITAL

Penang, Aug 25.

At the formal opening of "A" block yesterday (which marks the completion of the new General Hospital, Penang), Dr. J. C. Carson, Chief Medical Officer, made a remarkable speech, hoping that past memories will be forgotten and that private medical practitioners in Penang will co-operate with the Government Medical Officers and make it the more pleasant for all.

"My stay in Penang will not be very long," Dr. Carson said, "but during the short period of time that I am here I can sow the seed of co-operation I should feel that my time in Penang has not been wasted. This co-operation will make life more pleasant for all of us and will result to the good name of this hospital and will inspire a great confidence in the public mind."

To the many tributes paid to the departing Resident Councillor, Dr. Carson added his own yesterday when he said Mr. Arthur was one of the most popular Resident Councillors he had the pleasure of working under. If all the senior officers of the Government service were so kind and patient and above all had the same humour that Mr. Arthur had, then life in Malaya would be happier.

RECORD GATHERING

The opening ceremony was fixed to take place at noon but long before that hour guests began to arrive and were received by Dr. Carson and Miss Howes-Roberts. It is understood the Medical Department had sent out a certain number of invitations to members of the Legislative Council, Municipal Commissioners, heads of departments, etc., but an open invitation to the public attracted a record gathering, far more than the Medical Department had anticipated.

The gathering was led to the first floor where seating accommodation had been provided, but proved to be inadequate, more than three-quarters of those present having to stand. Dr. J. C. Carson, Chief Medical Officer, Miss Howes-Roberts, the Resident Councillor, Mr. Arthur, and the Senior Executive Engineer, Mr. V. G. Coates, took their seats at the centre table.

KING SEES GUNS OF RODNEY

Queen Bee Plane Wrecked

Portsmouth, Eng., July 17.

One of Britain's high-flying robot "Queen Bee" planes was brought down into the sea to-day by anti-aircraft guns aboard the battleship Rodney.

King George, here for the Jubilee naval maneuvers, witnessed the destruction of the pilotless plane.

The Rodney's anti-aircraft battery is claimed to be the last word in Britain's defense against the possibility of a massed air attack.

The robot plane which can fly pilotless over a radius of 10 miles at a speed of 100 miles an hour and an altitude of 10,000 feet recently emerged from experimental stages and was one of the features of the recent Royal Air Pageant at Hendon.

The new plane, known as the "Queen Bee," looks externally like an ordinary light plane. The radio control apparatus is housed in the rear pilot's cockpit. The construction is of wood, so that if it be brought down on water it will float. As a seaplane it is launched into the air by catapult, and as a land plane it takes off from and lands on an airfield. It is fitted with an aerial wire stretched between the wingtips and the tail. The Queen Bee can fly at about 100 miles an hour and at heights up to 10,000 feet.

Spectacular in flight the working of this robot plane is spectacular. An airframe stands at the control box which looks like a tall phonograph case with a row of keys which he presses as the officer's orders are called to him.

On the tarmac 300 yards away was the plane. When the take-off was ordered it ran along gaining speed and took off perfectly. Two turning orders were then given which were duly executed.

Then came "Climb..... straight glide..... dive." At the last order, down it came to within 200 feet of the airfield, when it flattened out and regained height in the orthodox way. It was revealed that such a maneuver could be regulated to any pre-arranged level and automatically carried out.

As an empty machine is not allowed to fly over the open country a pilot is always in the front cockpit, but he has nothing to do with it as a passenger prepared to take over control if anything should go wrong.

The main use of the "Queen Bee" at present is to give gunners realistic opportunities for firing at an aerial target.

THE KING'S SCOTS HOLIDAY

Aug 12

The King will arrive at Balmoral Castle for his annual holiday on Tuesday on Wednesday, August 21. The King will leave for the North on the evening of August 20, and will arrive at Ballater, where he will be received by Lord Aberdeen, Lord Lieutenant of Aberdeenshire, at 10 a.m.

The royal train will make the usual ten-minute halt at Aberdeen, where on a specially decorated part of the platform the Lord Provost, magistrates, and officials of the city will await its arrival. The royal train will reach Aberdeen at 2.20 a.m. and will leave on the run up Deeside at 2.30 a.m. The Queen, it is understood, will travel north at a later date.

As indicated by the large number of students who took examinations and are accepted the enrollment this year is expected to be up to the limit as set by the University.

The new features of this year, according to a statement issued from the President's office, are in connection with courses which are being added for vocational training in rural reconstruction.

These look forward to fitting students for taking part in the rural reconstruction activities which are playing so important a part in different provinces and have a special relation to local government, rural co-operative and rural education.

Another change has been in the Department of Chinese which is subject being increasingly stressed by Yenching University. Hereafter, it is hoped, the effort will be not only to maintain the usual required and elective courses, but to enable all students, including those majoring in Natural Sciences and Public Affairs, to master a clear and accurate style of writing.

The faculty of the University is enlarged this year by the addition of several new members who are well-known scholars and are considered authorities in their respective fields. They are: Messrs. Liang Tsung-hua, Lou Hsueh-shi, Wang Hsi-shan, of Department of Political Science; Messrs. Lu Kwong-ju, Liu Tze-teh, Liu Pan-jui, and Tung Lu-an, of Department of Chinese; Yu Yung-tze, of Department of Sociology; Chao Hsi-yu, of Department of Economics; Chu Yin-chi, of Department of Biology; and Miss Kwei Teh-hua, of Department of Education.

As is the usual custom of the University, a two-day Professional Conference of all faculty members will be held immediately following the opening of the school, on September 2 and 3. At this Conference a number of important subjects dealing with policy, administration, curriculum and all aspects of student life will be discussed.

First Woman—well, I must be off. I've an appointment with mother.

Second Woman—(sighing an exhausted laugh)—My dear, is it possible that you have a mother living?

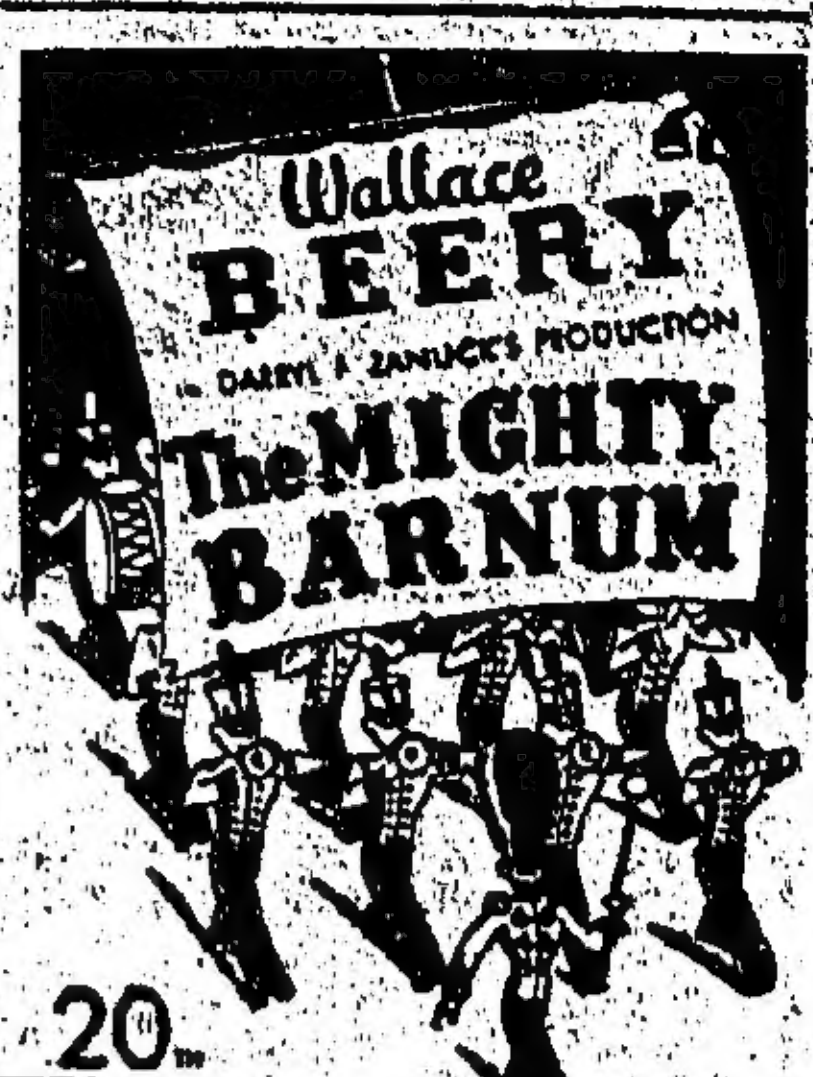

First Woman—(laughing in her turn)—Yes, oh yes. And do you know? I don't believe she looks a day older than I.

JAPANESE ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Singapore, Aug. 23.

A Japanese resident named Michiya Kawano was charged in Singapore yesterday before Mr. C. H. Whittom, with the possession of 200 sticks of dynamite, 100 detonators, and a quantity of fuse, without a permit.

Kawano, it was alleged, was arrested following a raid by police on a house in Serangoon Road.

It was stated that when Inspector F. G. Trewin entered the house Kawano threw away a sack which hit the ground. The sack contained the dynamite and the detonators.

Court Inspector D. R. Cowie, who described the arrest, said that Kawano had attempted to escape. He opposed bail. He added that there was a possibility that charges of theft or dishonestly retaining stolen property might be preferred against the accused.

The police revealed that quantities of dynamite had been missed from Changi military works and elsewhere.

The police raid, it was stated, revealed two more sacks, believed to contain cocaine. The case was postponed for a week, the accused being remanded in custody.

JOBLESS AUSTRIAN HANGING IN ROOM

Singapore, Aug. 23.

An unemployed Austrian engineer, Frank Scholz, 34, was found hanging in a room at a house in Pasir Panjang Road, Singapore, early yesterday morning.

Scholz lived in the house with a Eurasian woman and her little daughter.

The previous day, the property in the house was sold under a writ of distress. Scholz seemed to be worried by this.

About three o'clock yesterday morning, the little girl awoke to find Scholz hanging to the bed-rail by a tie.

She screamed to her mother, who cut the tie and attempted to revive Scholz, but he was dead.

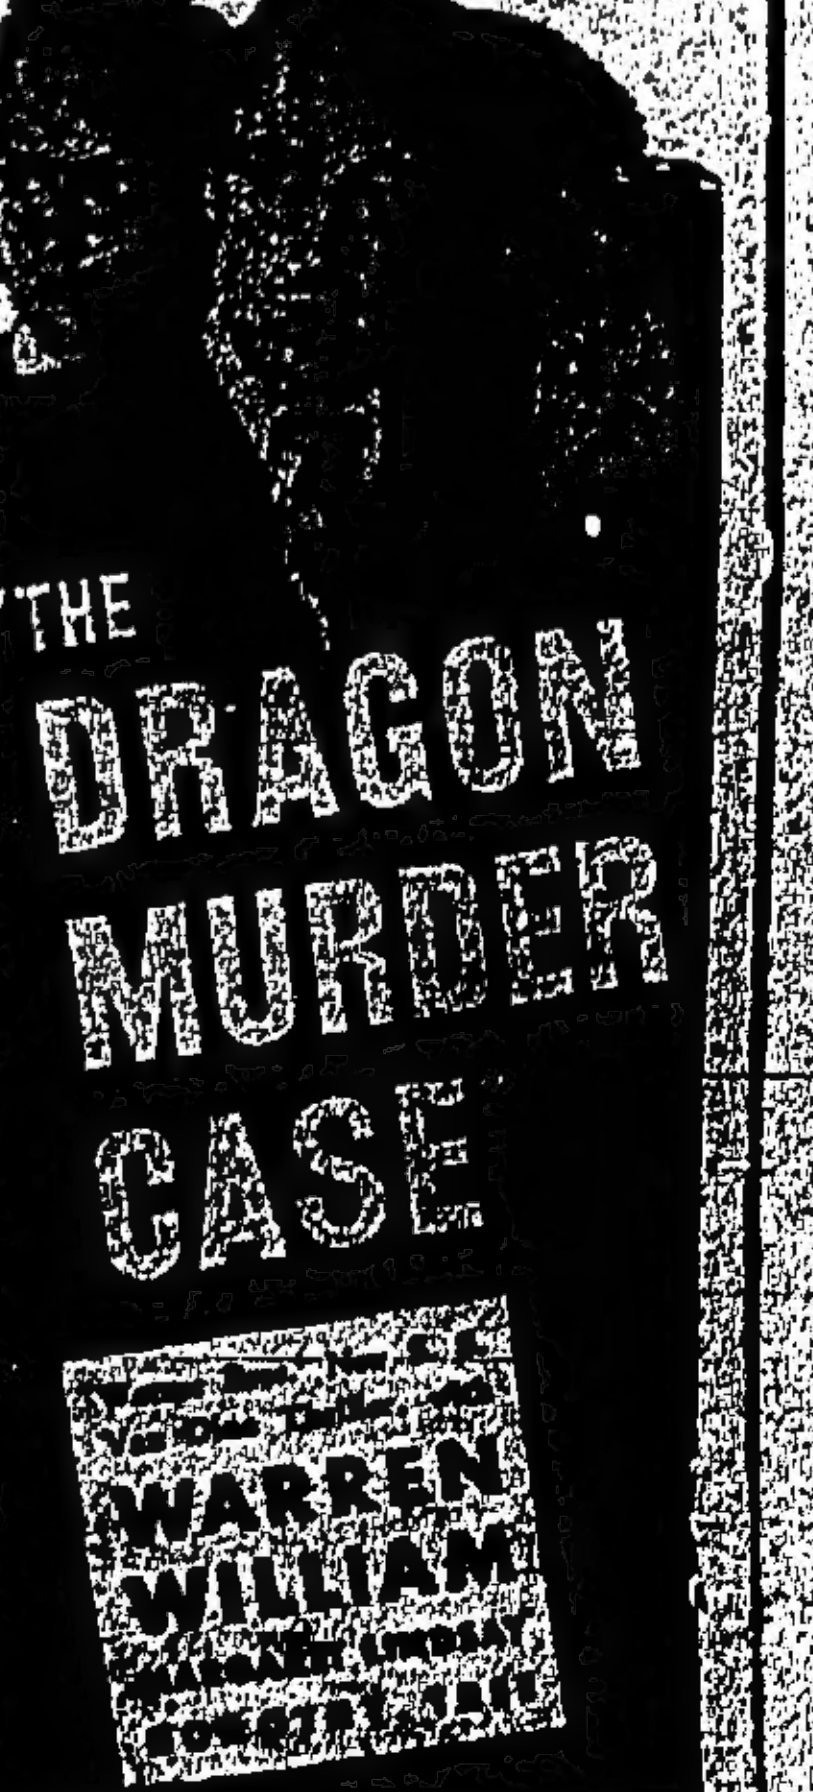

An inquiry will be held on Aug. 29.

ROBBERY WITH VIOLENCE

Singapore, Aug. 24.

How a Singapore woman and her male companion were attacked, stabbed and robbed in the street was told in the second magistrate's court yesterday when a preliminary inquiry was begun before Mr. Norman Grice into a charge of attempted murder against a Hengooa Chinese, Teng Ah Mong. Another man, Kim Ah Gong, was charged with voluntarily causing hurt.

The complainants are Yeo Ah Yeok, a woman, and Tan Kow Kiah, a man.

The prosecution story was that the two complainants were walking home along Kelantan Road about 9.20 p.m. The man stopped to buy some cigarettes while the woman walked along.

Suddenly she was attacked by two men. She alleged that while she was pined by the second accused the first grabbed away one of her earrings. She struggled while an attempt was being made to snatch away the other but she was punched and fell. While on the ground she was stabbed by the first accused.

STABBED AGAIN

The other complainant came on the scene at this stage and grappled with the first accused but received a backward stab. He ran away. The woman attempted to do the same but was chased and stabbed again.

Her screams for assistance drove her assailants away but none of the passers-by attempted to help her until a constable arrived from a nearby police hut.

Dr. Velasquez said that when the woman was admitted to the General Hospital she had two wounds on the lower part of the body. It was, however, the severe haemorrhage she was suffering from that made her case so critical as to advise him to have her statements recorded by a magistrate.

ANGLO-INDIAN ARRESTED

Singapore August 27.

John Albert Croning, an Anglo-Indian, who was arrested in Pulau Brani on August 23 on a provisional warrant issued at the instance of the Kuala Lumpur police, made a second appearance before Mr. Norman Grice, the Singapore second magistrate, yesterday.

The complainant, a Tamil named Lourdesam, identified accused. He said he had known the man for about two years and Croning had lived with him recently. The latter disappeared suddenly and witness missed $40 at the same time.

Croning admitted that he was the man wanted on the warrant and, being unable to find the $50 bail offered him, he was handed over to the escort for transfer to Kuala Lumpur.

HOSPITAL IDENTIFICATION

A Chinese youth, Tan Kow Kiah, was admitted at the same time. He had no injury, also slight haemorrhage but his condition was not so serious.

Inspector F. G. Minns said on receipt of a message from the hospital about the woman's condition he took the first accused, who had just been arrested, to hospital and the woman identified him as one of her assailants before Mr. C. H. Whittom, the present third magistrate. She later identified the second accused.

Witness examined the room occupied by both accused but did not find anything incriminating in either of them. Later a singlet was found belonging to the first accused which had marks of blood on it.

A few days later an identification parade was held in hospital in which the two accused were placed among 10 others. The injured boy identified the first accused but not the second. Hearings were adjourned.

A 26-year-old married woman, Ng Yuk, a 37-year-old unemployed, Lam Po-ki, and another married woman named Tse Ngo, were all charged with receiving parts of the stolen goods.

"I saw no money, I took no jewellery, but some clothes only," replied the first accused in answer to the charges. The others pleaded not guilty.

Inspector Chester-Woods stated that there is still about $1,700 to be recovered.

POSSESSION OF OPIUM

A large seizure of prepared opium on board the s.s. "Pleasantville" at 3.30 a.m. on Friday had its sequel at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday, when two quartermasters, Sing Fat and Tong Ting, a carpenter, Li Yau, a private watchman, Li Ping, and Chau Ngau, master of passenger boat No. B3671, were charged with the unlawful possession of 3,340 taels of prepared opium on board the s.s. "Pleasantville," and with attempting to export the opium. All defendants pleaded not guilty and were remanded for seven days by Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones.

The fifth defendant, who is alleged to be the "brains" of the racket, was allowed bail of $5,000, while the bail for the remaining four defendants was fixed at $2,500 each. Mr. C. E. R. Sanderson is appearing for the fifth defendant, while Mr. W. J. Buller is prosecuting.

Another Chinese male, To Keh-hoi, was separately charged with attempting to export prepared opium on board the same ship. Revenue Officer A. W. Grimmer stated that the amount would be between 4,000 and 5,000 taels. Mr. Sanderson also appeared on behalf of the accused who was remanded for a week. Bail was fixed at $5,000.

THEFT OF HAND-BAG

"I don't know anything. I have just come out from the country, and have nothing to eat," pleaded a 22-year-old Chinese youth, Li Shu, at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday, when he was charged before Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones with the theft of a hand-bag from a married woman named Leung Chiu-ying at about 8 p.m. on Friday in Pei Ho Street, near Puk Wing Street, Kowloon. Defendant was sentenced to four months' hard labour and 12 strokes of the birch. If found unfit, to serve an additional two months' imprisonment.

ILLICIT STILL

Appearing on remand before Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday Wong Ming, who, together with Liu Tak, was originally charged with the unlawful possession of a still and apparatus for making Chinese liquor, with the possession of fermenting material and with the possession of Chinese spirits on which no duty had been paid, was discharged as there was insufficient evidence against him.

Liu Tak pleaded guilty and was fined $250, in default three months' hard labour, on the second charge; and $50, in default one month's imprisonment. The sentences are to run consecutively.

The still, apparatus, fermenting material and the Chinese liquor was ordered to be confiscated.

Three months' hard labour was imposed on a 19-year-old unemployed, Leung Wai, by Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Magistracy on Saturday for the possession of a sharpened file for an unlawful purpose. Defendant stated that he had a fight with another man some time ago. They made an arrangement to meet again, and he was going to keep the appointment when he was arrested.

For the theft of a metal wrist watch, an unemployed Chinese male, Ng Wing-lam, was sentenced to six weeks' hard labour by Mr. E. I. Wynne-Jones at the Kowloon Police Court on Saturday.

EQUINE SPORTS CLUB

Many Amenities Provided

A large gathering was dressed at Shatin on Saturday when Mr. Lawrence Kadoorie officially opened the new Equine Sports Club. The locality of the Club is in pleasant surroundings and with easy access of the railway station and road. All the amenities of a Club are to be found and there is a large field which can be utilised for polo or as a training field.

Among those present were:

The Hon. Mr. J. P. Braga, the Hon. Dr. R. H. Kowall, members of the Committee of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, Mr. F. A. Joseph, Mr. Hintmarsh, Mr. C. A. da Rosa, Mr. Weill, Mr. A. J. Tebbutt, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gillard, Mr. A. L. Cole, Mr. R. H. Woodman, Mr. H. Rose, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wattle, Mrs. Angus, Mr. H. Angus, Mr. F. Angus, Mr. E. Joffe, Dr. Smalley, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Binnie, Mr. M. Leite, Miss P. McCaw, Mr. J. J. King, Miss Wang, Mrs. Yip, Mr. F. Anstow, Mr. H. Hopkins, Miss A. Steele and Miss E. O'Hagen.

"PRESIDENT'S SPEECH"

Before calling on Mr. Lawrence Kadoorie to perform the opening ceremony, the President, Mr. J. L. Quie, said: "I am very pleased to see so many people here to-day and, on behalf of the Committee, I extend a hearty welcome to you all."

"To-day is a red letter day for the Club, insofar as this official opening means the practical culmination of an idea."

"When it was decided to form this Club, the Committee had the faith and belief that a demand existed for such a Club, the chief object of which is to make the cost of riding more reasonable and more accessible to the ordinary man in the street. This faith and belief has been fully justified, as everyone can see."

"A membership of 100 within the short space of three months is, I think, something to be proud of. Given the loyal support of members there, is no doubt that the Club has a very bright future."

"I now take great pleasure in introducing Mr. Lawrence Kadoorie, who has kindly consented to perform the opening ceremony by breaking the first time, the Club's official Cider."

MR. KADOORIE'S SPEECH

Mr. Lawrence Kadoorie, before opening the New Club-house, said: "Your having asked me to open this Club to-day is indeed a privilege that I very much appreciate. When I visited these grounds a fortnight ago, and the aims and objects of your Club were explained to me, my admiration was aroused for those of you who had the courage to promote an institution which, undoubtedly, fulfils a need in this Colony."

"To the 10 people present at the meeting held on May 18 last, when it was decided to form the 'Equine Sports Club,' I offer my sincere congratulations."

"In the short time that has elapsed since that date, you have been able to obtain these excellent premises, within such easy access of town, both by car and by train, and have been able to provide suitable stabling accommodation for no less than 25 ponies."

"The three ponies that were here when the Club opened have been promoted; they are no longer 'parked' in a garage which, one of them whispered to me was very much below his dignity, but now occupy places of honour as senior members, amongst their many companions."

"The promoters of this Club have been able to reduce the cost of stabling from approximately $80 per month to $25 per month."

"This has made it possible for a large number of enthusiasts to avail themselves of the excellent facilities offered for riding in this lovely valley, which, from a scenic point of view, compares favourably with any in the world. That their efforts have been appreciated is proved by the increased membership, which has risen in the short period of three months from the 10 persons present at the original meeting to approximately 100 to-day."

"Your Committee is composed of eminently practical men; out of nothing they have created something."

"I have no doubt that they will soon succeed in overcoming the difficulties of driving the large area adjoining these premises, and it is not hard to visualise polo matches against the other sporting Clubs in this Colony, when I feel sure your members will distinguish themselves."

"It was only by the former enthusiastic Governors of Hong Kong who six years ago, in my memory serves me right, visualised the possibility of practically the whole of the shallow bay in front of us being reclaimed, to the site of the Police Station on the other side of the mainland, and that this whole area would be laid out as a magnificent international sports park. That was indeed a broad outlook!"

"What the Government has feared to embark upon will, I hope, be done by private enterprise."

"I trust and honestly believe that the Equine Sports Club will at some time, not too distant, lay claim on the sea for extension."

"One need not be a prophet to visualise the development seaward, by the reclamation of sufficient ground, of a training track and cantering course."

THE AMENITIES

"At the present moment, in addition to riding, you have sea bathing and tennis to offer in the summer months, and it is not difficult to imagine an excellent golf course arising from the sea in the near future."

"Your enthusiasm is catching and emboldens me to suggest to your Committee that the facilities of this Club be offered to non-members."

"I see in your endeavour an excellent opportunity to prove to the many who visit this Colony that they will be welcome and will be given an opportunity to share with us residents the many amenities offered."

CLUB-HOUSE AS CAFE

"This Club-house already provides meals for its members, and it does not need very much imagination to foresee it as an excellent restaurant where those touring the New Territories will be able to rest and enjoy a lunch of fresh fish for which these waters are so justly famous."

"The Tourist Association is very much in our minds these days, and if your Club cares to assist in its promotion and development, you have ready at hand a half-way house whence light meals and refreshments can be provided to its patrons."

"Much can be done by the broadcasting of the exceptional facilities you have to offer."

REPULSE BAY HOTEL

POPULAR

Hong Kong's most popular summer resort, the Repulse Bay Hotel, was the scene of a delightful Dinner Dance on Saturday night and society turned out in full numbers to mark their appreciation of the re-opening of these week-end functions.

Whilst the weather in the City and Kowloon was stifling, a delightful breeze made Repulse Bay doubly attractive and the Hotel, even before the dance, proved a popular rendezvous.

It looks as if all roads will lead to Repulse Bay on every Saturday night, from now on, for the dancers and pleasure seekers.

Dance music was provided by the very popular "Revellers" Band under the leadership of Silverio.

"Do not let a false sense of exclusiveness close your doors to our many friends from abroad."

"You have in this Club a very good means of showing the Colony's hospitality and of doing much to promote a better and brighter Hong Kong."

"Concluding, may I be permitted to add just a few words. I am assured that the Equine Sports Club of Hong Kong is not competitive or oppositional. It is complementary to those other Clubs that are fulfilling so admirably their respective functions."

"To demonstrate my practical interest, it gives me much pleasure to offer you a challenge cup for competition by members of this Club in any way that your Committee thinks can promote the best interests of the Club."

"That you may succeed to the fullest extent of your ambition is

INDIAN CONSTABLE

CONVICTED

Munsha Singh, a member of the Hong Kong Police force, was charged with obtaining bribes from Li Cheung, a hawker, and with assaulting and unlawfully arresting Li Cheung, at the Central Magistracy on Saturday morning, before Mr. W. Schofield, after a long and protected hearing.

Defendant was found not guilty on the first charge but was fined $75, in default one month's hard labour, and $100, in default seven weeks' hard labour, on the other charges. He was also ordered to pay $5 as compensation to Li Cheung or serve another seven days.

Mr. Thompson, A. S. P., prosecuting, produced evidence of defendant's character, which he said was very unsatisfactory during the eight years he had been in the Police force.

Mr. Thompson asked that a serious view be taken as defendant was a policeman and as such owed a great duty to the public. It was a matter for regret when one of their own men let them down.

myself but also of your many friends.

"Ladies and Gentlemen, I have much pleasure in declaring the Equine Sports Club open."

After Mr. Kadoorie had performed the official opening ceremony he was presented with a beautiful silver horse-shoe, set on blackwood, as a souvenir of the occasion.

After this a parade of the horses took place and tea was served.

An unofficial dinner dance was held in the evening.

THE MAN WHO STAYED AT HOME

Sermon At Union Church

Continuing the series on "The man who stayed at home," Rev. John Foster delivered the following sermon at the Union Church yesterday.

In the Communion Office it was long the custom to give a prominent place to the Commandments, and for the congregation to repeat, "Lord have mercy upon us and incline our hearts keep this law." It is with relief that one sees this practice dying out. The Ten Commandments are too crude and primitive to be a standard of Christian morality; some of them contain a conception of God very different from Him whom we celebrate in the Communion Service. A service which gives glory to God at the reading of the Holy Gospel should not include "incline our hearts to keep this law." The Law and the Gospel mark different and conflicting views of religion. We now substitute for the words of Exodus the "Commandments of the Lord Jesus." In doing so we should notice a change which goes deeper than the words.

I heard of a woman, whose small boy was very grumpy and quarrelsome at the picnic. At last she could stand his whining no longer. She put him across her knee and as she belabored him was heard to say, "I brought you here to enjoy yourself and enjoy yourself you shall!"

You cannot make a commandment like that. Now is it in the spirit of Commandments that our Lord says, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God and thy neighbor as thyself." As if it is the supreme factor in your religion. Is religion the keeping of commandments, or living in communion?

RELIGION

It is not surprising that the former should be the more widespread conception. Religion, whether in the New Testament or the Old, or indeed religion at its highest elsewhere, is concerned that the will of God be done. But my point is not to question that. I am really asking, "Are we sons of God because we do the will of God; or are we able to do the will of God because we are sons of God?"

That may remind you of the boy who asked his father where eggs came from and was told, hens, and where hens came from and was told eggs. Then he asked which came first.

But, I assure you, my question is not due to any childlike love of pushing questions further and further back into the unknown. I ask because the answer has been seen, by some of the most earnest seekers both in other religions and our own, to be fundamental to religion.

It was so in India six centuries before Christ. Hinduism is a religion where the gods are almost as numerous as the worshippers, and doctrines are equally diverse. The one belief characteristic of the whole of Hinduism is Transmigration. The influence of this doctrine through so many centuries and among so many millions of the human race is because Transmigration tries to show that life is not lawless. The injustices and inequalities of life are explained by reference to the hidden law of Karma. Karma means "works," and according to your works you are rewarded. If you have done well you will come to earth next time higher up the scale. If you have done ill you may be reborn low-caste, or out-caste; a great sinner may in his next life be a woman still greater and he may be a beast you rise or fall according to your works. It is thus that the wheel of life goes round.

Then Gautama sat down under the Bo tree. To him there came enlightenment, the flash of inspiration which saw a higher way. Not works, with more weariness of life as one's wages the true pride is called "release." No longer bound to the wheel, he has found the Eternal Blessedness which is Nirvana. That is what "the Buddha" means, the man who has found.

IN CHINA

It was so in this ancient land of China. At about the same time that Gautama was alive in India, there lived here that Sage who more than any other has set his mark upon twenty-five centuries of his country's history, Confucius. He did not spend time speculating upon what God was like; he was too busy teaching men what they were to be like. He set up the ideal of "the princely man." In all life's many relationships, that of a minister to the Crown, son to father, younger brother to elder, wife to husband, friend to friend, he fixed the rules of right behaviour. Not only for sacrificing, but for walking and talking and eating, there was a correct etiquette. Those who collected his memoirs even took care to record that "if the Master's mat was not straight he would not sit down!" With him more than any other the way of life is to watch your step, be meticulous about each smallest detail, keep each tiniest commandment. So you will become a "princely man."

At the same time there lived a rather older man who was impatient of all this fussiness. So impatient he was that he spoke (something like Mr. G. K. Chesterton does now) in extravagant paradox: "Do nothing; that is the Way of Nature. He who does nothing does everything." It is hard to be quite sure what Lao-tzu meant. His "do nothing" has been interpreted as "Let Nature have its way." But it is Nature with a capital N, and Professor Southill paraphrases it "Let God work through you." There is the contrast: True goodness is not forced but spontaneous. It does not come by having detailed rules and being careful to keep them. You attain it by being yourself in harmony with the Tao—Nature—God. Don't watch your step—forget it! That is the way to arrive.

CLASH OF TWO IDEAS

We see the clash of the two ideas more clearly still in the Christian Church of the first century. The apostles were all Jewish, and most of them thought that the Christian life meant continuing to avoid eating pork, not walking more than so many hundred yards on the Sabbath, and fulfilling all the thousand and one rules of strict Judaism. If the Church had been left with such leadership alone it would have flourished awhile as a small Jewish sect, and then probably it would have died out. Certain it is it would never have the farthing, all-embracing world-religion which it has been for so many centuries and is more than ever to-day.

Read the Epistle to the Galatians. There you will see one who must have appeared to many to be an outsider, not one of the original Apostles, but a late-comer to the faith, fighting against this idea. The Apostle to the Gentiles will not have the Gentiles brought into this bondage. He sees that the central truth which Christ has brought to light is that religion is not the observance of an external code. It is having Christ in your heart: "I live, and yet no longer I but Christ liveth in me; and that life which I now live in the flesh I live in faith, the faith which is in the Son of God who loved me and gave himself up for me." (Gal. ii. 20). The joy of this deeper discovery rings through the epistles, not only of St. Paul. The writer to the Hebrews says that the secret of the race lies, not in watching your step, but in "looking unto Jesus the author and perfecter of our faith" (Heb. xii. 2). And not the epistles only; the writer of the latest Gospel underlines this teaching: "A new commandment give I unto you, that ye love. If a man love Me, he will keep My word; and My Father will love him, and we will come and make our abode with him." (John xiv. 23). Loving Him, having Him in your heart, losing yourself in Him, this is how "ye bear much fruit" (xv. 8).

IDEA OF RELIGION

Yet the battle is always having to be fought over again. Men are always dropping back to this idea of religion as "commandment-keeping." It is something more tangible, more easily talked about, more readily believed. The Reformation began as a protest against such decline. Men were saying, "Keep the rules (of the Church) watch your step, so much sin requires so much penance and gains its absolution. Luther was watching his step—quite literally. He was doing one of the traditional works of merit, ascending the stone steps known as Peter's staircase in Rome, step by step, painfully, upon his knees. And this word of St. Paul revived in his heart, "The just shall live by faith." He set up, forgot the step, and remembered to look to Jesus.

But the Reformation had not well begun before its leaders were divided on this very issue. For

WEDDING

Morrison-Merriman

At the Union Church on Saturday, Miss Sarah Gemmell Morrison became the bride of Mr. George Merriman, of the Import and Exports Office, the wedding being attended by a large number of friends.

The bride, who is a Nursing sister at the Government Civil Hospital looked charming in a pink lace dress. She was given away by Dr. Isaac Newton and was attended by Miss Isobel Summerskill as matron-of-honour, and Miss A. S. Rogers as bridesmaid.

Mr. Helmut Saurbach performed the duties of best man.

A reception was held later in the Sisters' Quarters of the Government Civil Hospital, which was largely attended by friends of the couple. Mr. and Mrs. Merriman left for Japan by the s.s. "Ho Sang" on their honeymoon yesterday.

AT THE REGISTRY

Mr. Michael Ching, an engineer with the Shing Mun Dam, New Territories, the son of the late Mr. Ching Hui-gin, was married at the Marriage Registry, Supreme Court, on Saturday, to Miss Nancy Loo, dentist, of No. 7 Bayview Mansions, the daughter of the late Mr. Loo Joe.

John Calvin turned reformed Christianity into a new legalism. The Bible is the will of God, written as it were by God's own finger. Watch your step! Everything that you do must have a text to justify it. Look in your guide-book for each minutest direction of the way. "If heaven is our country what is earth but a place of exile? If to die is to enter into life, what is this world but a sepulchre?"

Luther is not counted so great a theologian, but he is a much better Christian. He wrote a book called "The Liberty of the Christian Man." He will not have anything to do with religion as commandment keeping. If you are doing good in order to put yourself right with God, it is selfish, and so it isn't good. Only when you are right with God can real goodness begin—and it comes spontaneously, without thought of reward, even as a child loves to do His Father's will. So we are free from commandments—"A Christian man is the most free lord of all, and subject to no man." We are not picking our way carefully through a wicked world; all that we do here and now is as pleasing to God and as sacred as the service of the holy angels up in heaven. For we are already sons of God, and we cannot be more in either time or eternity!

THE NEW RICH

Is religion the keeping of commandments or living in communion? I come from a part of England where many fortunes were made during the War. There are many stories of the doings of the nouveaux riches. One is about a piano shop which was visited twice within a week by the same gentleman. "You know that grand pianer you sold me? Well, I want another just like it." "Why sir, there's nothing wrong with the first is there?" "Wrong? Nowt of it sort. My wife thinks 'tother side of t' fireplace looks a bit bare like, so we want another to match." "I ask you, is religion something to examine with care, does it fit, does it match, a bit further this way or a bit nearer that? Or is it something to make you forget yourself and the room and the furnishings; borne on the wings of heavenly harmony?"

In South China there are many places where new roads have meant the coming of the motor car. In one such village, one of the oldest inhabitants watched a junk come in with the first of these strange new monsters. He saw the coolies fix their carrying poles under the lashings, he heard them stagger from the deck to the bank and then away towards the road. Somebody asked him afterwards what he thought of motor cars. "Motor cars?" he said. "They're mighty heavy things. It takes twenty men to carry one."

I know a many people to whom religion is something to be carried (and something "mighty heavy"). Instead of something that carries them, mounting up with wings as eagles.

I never transgressed a commandment of mine. Are you, like the elder brother, tolling along in a humdrum round of commandment keeping?

"Thou art ever with Me." Are you daily entering further into the romance of being sons and daughters of God?

DEPORTATION OF UNDESIRABLES

The law relating to the deportation of undesirable aliens is to be consolidated and amended, in accordance with an Ordinance the draft of which appears in the current issue of the "Government Gazette."

It is explained in the objects and reasons that this Ordinance repeals the Deportation Ordinances of 1917, 1929 and 1931 and replaces them by an Ordinance which consolidates with certain amendments those of their provisions which related to the deportation of Aliens. The principal new provisions are: Deportation Orders under this Ordinance will only be made against undesirable who are found by Governor in Council to be aliens. This involves slight changes in the long and short titles; the disappearance of section 4 of Ordinance No. 25 of 1917, and of the special form of Deportation Order applicable to British subjects with consequential omissions in the sections now re-enacted as sections 2, 42, 16 (5) and 18.

ALIEN DEFINED

In section 2 an alien is defined as a person who is not a British subject, a denizen, which has been taken from section 27 (1) of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914. A further provision in section 3 defines a British subject as a person of British nationality.

This new definition though short is comprehensive. It replaces the provision in Ordinance No. 25 of 1917, which defined a British subject as including a natural-born British subject and a person naturalized under an Imperial Act or under an Ordinance of the Colony. That definition is considered unsatisfactory because it appeared to throw doubt on the status of the wives of British subjects or aliens whose nationality is determined by section 10 of the British Nationality and Status of Aliens Act, 1914 (4 & 5 Geo. 5, c. 17) as enacted by the Act of 1933 (23 & 24 Geo. 5, s. 49), and because it apparently included former British subjects who had lost their British nationality.

DISCRETION

Section 9, which replaces section 5 of the 1917 Ordinance has been revised so as to give the Inspector General of Police a discretion to release from custody persons on whom deportation orders have been served and an addition has been made to section 11 (a) (which replaces section 6 (a) of the 1917 Ordinance). These two amendments were approved by the Secretary of State in a despatch of the April 9, 1934.

Section 11 (which replaces section 11 of the 1917 Ordinance) has been revised to include other persons besides Victoria Goats.

An eighth question has been added to form No. 2 in the Schedule, asking if the person concerned is willing to be questioned about the matter, and a new sub-section 4 (5) relating thereto has been added. This seems necessary in order to enable the person to give a full statement, if he so desires, in the Full Court having held in the Sung Man Cho case, that section 3A (4) enacted in Ordinance No. 7 of 1931 (now replaced by section 4 (4) of the new Ordinance) only authorised supplementary questions confined to the particulars in the statutory questions or allegations and did not authorise the taking of a full statement.

With reference to notification No. 362 of July 9, 1928, relating to the Convention of June 21, 1922, between the United Kingdom and Belgium respecting Legal Proceedings in civil and commercial matters, it is hereby notified that a Supplementary Convention to facilitate the conduct of Legal Proceedings was signed at Brussels on November 4, 1932, and has been extended to the Colony of Hong Kong with effect on and from June 27, 1935.

The Daily Press

HONG KONG, SEPTEMBER 2, 1935.

CANT AND CORONEL

In reading the pious manifesto on "Peace and Reconstruction" which was given to the Press at Home recently, one was haunted by a recollection of having read something of a similar nature before and on giving it further thought it was found that the signature of Mr. Lloyd George provided the clue. It will be recalled that it was at the beginning of 1914 that he was using just such urgent language about disarmament, emphasizing that there was never a more appropriate time. Then in the spring of 1915 he changed his tune entirely and stressed the need for munitions and high explosives, as well as big guns and in December 1916, he was using almost exactly the phrases of this manifesto, as for example, "lacking in the firmness, resolution and vigour which their urgency and importance demand," "the present fatalistic drift," and so forth. His phrases then were directed against Mr. Asquith, whose crime was that he was not sufficiently in earnest about making war; that he was not delivering the knock-out blow and that he was not really out for a fight to a finish. These same phrases are now flung at the National Government for not disarming with sufficient speed and sufficient thoroughness in the face of an unresponsive world. Times change and men change with them but the fact remains that they do not change so much that we can afford to neglect history and logic afford to neglect history and logic for a certain lack of logic in the manifesto mentioned above is also characteristic of our Celtic genius. "Believing that war is contrary to the mind of Christ and is a crime against human brotherhood," the manifesto proceeds, not to propose the abolition of armaments but merely "the reduction of all arms to the police level." Here one may ask what is the police level? For instance the police of France are armed with swords and those in Britain with truncheons. Is it less contrary to the mind of Christ to fight with the one than with the other? "Offensive implements of war" are to be abolished and the implication is that defensive implements of war are to be retained. Here again the question arises, how is one to distinguish between offensive implements and defensive ones? Would it be defensive to kill an enemy with a rifle or to kill him with a 6-inch howitzer? It is as much or as little a crime against human brotherhood to make small arms as big guns and it seems that there are two logical alternatives in this matter. One is to say "we shall throw away all our arms; we shall bare our breasts and make a pacific defence by our very defencelessness." Dare one take such a course? Even those austere brethren of the Free Churches do not advise it. Then there is the only other logical course, "to arm sufficiently to secure that none shall wantonly attack us."

Mr. Lloyd George and his friends, however, will have neither alternative. They want a general reduction of arms, yet surely they cannot be ignorant to the fact that this has already been attempted and has already failed? Some of Britain's neighbours have adopted conscription, building strong navies and enormous fleets. Is Britain, then, in the face of all this to continue the disarmament policy which has left her with a tiny Army, a largely superannuated Navy and an inadequate Air Force? Such a policy it will be readily seen, does not lead to peace but only to defeat. In short, therefore, what these good people in effect propose, is that Britain's fighting men should be doomed to unequal combat, and having learnt one lesson, it may be sure that those in authority will see to it that there shall be no repetition of that disaster.

AMERICA WARNS RUSSIA

Relations May Be Severed

Washington, Aug. 31.—The United States have warned the Soviet that their future friendly relations depend solely on strict Soviet adherence to its pledge of non-interference in United States internal affairs. The warning is not in the form of a note but a formal statement by Mr. Cordell Hull issued here.

The U.S. Secretary of State described the Soviet's recent note rejecting the American protest as a "clever but a solemn pledge which is a severe blow to friendly relations."

Mr. Cordell Hull added that if the Soviet continued to allow agitators on Russian soil to plan and direct a programme to overthrow American institutions, it would mean a repudiation of the Soviet pledge and a blow to relations with the United States.

In his statement Mr. Hull continues: "In view of the plain language of the Soviet pledge, it is impossible for the Soviet to disclaim its obligations to prevent activities in its territory directed towards the overthrow of social order in the United States and the Soviet cannot disclaim responsibility on the ground of inability to carry out the pledge for its authority is supreme and its power controls the acts and utterances of individuals absolutely. Whether friendly relations between two great countries is unfortunately to be impaired and co-operative opportunities for a vast amount of good destroyed will depend on the attitude and action of the Soviet."

If Gossip We Must

BY "ONLOOKER"

ON THE VERANDAH OF THE GLOUCESTER

I saw a lot of cheerful parties on the verandah of the Gloucester in the course of the week. Mrs. Shannon was holding a regular court among the Bank people one night. The popular Audrey Steel came in with friends, and was joined by the lovely Miss Simmons. Later in the week I dined at the Gloucester in company with many people all bound for the Dorday Review. Elsie Strahan was there with a friend, and I caught a glimpse of Noreen Cooper in another party. Betty Pestoni was looking marvellous in the lowliest spot muslin, dress with the becoming frill around her back and neck.

DOORLAY REVIEW

When we arrived at the Review the whole place seemed to be packed to overflowing, and I don't wonder. The Doorlay people are simply amazing, and I would not have missed them for anything. They have extraordinary pep and verve. We so seldom have "flesh and blood" shows here and they are a pleasant change after the eternal "flickers." It is difficult to decide which turns one liked best—they were all so good. The silent funny man reduced me to a pulp of mirth, while the thrilling perch balancers frightened me. Ruth Hasse was amazingly versatile, and one felt that her untiring spirit was the secret of the whole show. How she danced. And how she led that "Girls' Band."

THE GRIPS

After this very fine show we wandered over to the Grips, where everything was very festive, in spite of the heat wave. There was a large party of soldiery including Captain Clough-Taylor

J. G. Robertson, of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank, an interpreter of many seasons standing, is the newly elected Captain of the Hong Kong Rugby Football Club. A widely popular personality, "Robbie" is also a "Soccer" player of note, no mean performer at "squash," and at the Press once so aptly phrased it "above all, fit."

who was entertaining Betty Gerard, Vera Hodgson, and Mrs. Feltham, who by the way was looking even more attractive than usual in a wonderful striped dress with plaited shoulder straps and a tight little posey in front. I saw Peggy Humphreys in a pretty flowered dress, looking very petite indeed, dancing with the "Tallest man in Asia." I wonder who it was in the gay tartan gingham with touches of white. There was a vision in pink with a becoming ribbon round her hair floating about too. They were both unknown to me.

SHORTS FOR WOMEN

The old idea that shorts are unbecoming to women seems to have completely exploded. The other day at a large feminine tennis party almost everybody wore some variety of these garments, and one and all looked very nice indeed. So much depends on the cut, and unless you are a veritable mountain of flesh careful tailoring can achieve much comfort and a good appearance into the bargain.

COCKTAIL PARTY

A very nice Cocktail Party was given on the eve of the departure of H.M.S. Partisan for Wei-Hai-Wei. Among those present were Commander and Mrs. Salter, Mr. and Mrs. Rees. The ladies looked very well and affected various becoming styles even to a Stuart-Tartan. Mrs. Humphreys looked particularly well, as did Mrs. Dunnett and Miss Hopkins. There were several ladies present whose names I do not know. Of the men in the party the Services were well represented, as were also the Civilian element of the younger generation.

Afterwards some ten of us repaired to the Hong Kong Hotel and enjoyed a thoroughly good dinner and dance.

SURFING

On Saturday Commander and Mrs. Salter gave a launch picnic party. There were nearly 13 of us but two failed at the last moment. We went to Junk Bay, surfing on the way out and back.

Lieutenant Commander Banks is the star turn at surfing. I strongly advise those who have not tried this form of sport to do so at the first opportunity. It is not as difficult as it looks and to say the least of it, it is very exhilarating even done near a Joss House.

The projected branch line will be 100 miles in length. A survey will be made by the Railway authorities shortly. —Reuter.

OIL CONCESSION IN ABYSSINIA

Sensational Move By The Emperor

With the meeting of the League Council close at hand and war in Abyssinia imminent in the course of a few weeks, a sensation has been created by the report of a 75-year concession granted by Ethiopia to an Anglo-American company for the development of oil and mineral resources in Abyssinia.

Statements have been issued by both the British and American Governments, and while Italian official circles are awaiting fuller details of the details of the concession, the Rome papers have renewed their attack.

This move by the Ethiopian Emperor is interpreted as an effort to enlist the aid of others in the coming conflict with Italy.

London, Aug. 31.

It is learned in official quarters that the British Government have no information in regard to the reported concession granted by the Ethiopian Government to an Anglo-American consortium, also that neither official nor unofficial support has been given thereto by the Government which has repeatedly stated that they have no imperial or economic interests in Abyssinia except Lake Tana.

The Government have asked the British Minister at Addis Ababa to make full enquiries into the matter.

The British Foreign Office has issued the following communiqué: "His Majesty's Government have so far received no confirmation of the report in to-day's press of grant of concessions in oil and mineral rights in Abyssinia, but have felt it necessary to inform the British Minister at Addis Ababa that such concessions would undoubtedly be a matter for preliminary consultations by the British Government with the French and Italian Governments under Article 2 of the Tripartite Treaty of 1902."

"In these circumstances Sir Sidney Barton has been authorised, if the report is true, to inform the Emperor that the British Government must, for their part, advise him to withhold the concessions."

MR. HULL'S STATEMENT

Washington, Aug. 31. Mr. Cordell Hull, U.S. Secretary of State, in a statement to newspapermen, discounted any possibility of the United States Government becoming involved in the Italo-Ethiopian controversy through oil concessions.

It has not been the practice of American concerns to consult the State Department before negotiating such transactions abroad. "The Government does not undertake to follow its nationals around the world and advise them what they should or should not do in matters of business. Private transactions are ordinarily not the concern of the Government," said Mr. Hull.

ASTUTE MOVE BY NEGUS

Paris, Aug. 31. In the course of a despatch confirming the signature of a concession to an "American company," the Addis Ababa correspondent of the "Paris Soir" says that the Negus has undoubtedly sought to place himself under economic protectorate of Anglo-Saxon countries with a view to obtaining their support. It is believed at Addis Ababa that Ethiopia will no longer have to face Italy alone.

AMERICAN VIEWS

Addis Ababa, Aug. 31. American circles here do not consider that the concession can affect the course of the Italo-Abyssinian dispute.

EARLY CABLE REPORTS

London, Aug. 31. An Addis Ababa telegram reports that the Negus has granted an Anglo-American company with its headquarters in London a large concession to exploit minerals and oil in Abyssinia. It is stated that it will ultimately involve millions of pounds.

It is officially confirmed that an agreement has been signed granting concessions over vast territory in Abyssinia for the development of oil deposits with American companies.

The African Exploration and Development Corporation was chartered under the laws of the State of Delaware on July 11 last. The registered capital is 5,000 shares of a par value of $100 each.

The charter authorises inter alia the boring for petroleum and the exploration and development of natural resources.

The American Charge d'Affaires at Addis Ababa confirmed the signature of the concession to Washington, who refused to comment.

A GREAT DEAL

"One of the great deals in history," jubilantly stated one of Mr. Rickett's closest connections in an exclusive interview with Reuters, but he refused to lift the mystery surrounding the principals behind the transaction.

Despite the Addis Ababa reports that the concession was granted to an American group, some circles assume that there is considerable British participation, while others suggest that the African Exploitation and Development Corporation, who hold the concession and are registered at Delaware, may later offer participation to other oil interests.

Mr. Rickett is well-known in the City, in Iraq, Egypt and Abyssinia, but is not identified with any particular oil group, which made him the most suitable negotiator. It is recalled that Mr. Rickett played a prominent part in securing the concession for the British Oil Development Co. in Iraq.

He is married and has three children, twin boys and one girl. He is well known in Clubland, belonging inter alia to the Travellers and Royal Thames Clubs.

U.S. OPINIONS

Washington, Aug. 31. Pending official confirmation from Addis Ababa, officials of the State Department decline to comment on the reported Anglo-American oil deal, but a number of Congressmen are amazed and annoyed at big business's apparent disregard of the will of the country, as expressed by the Neutrality Bill.

The fact that United States citizens have purchased an interest in the war will not change the country's policy of neutrality, comments Senator Borah.

"Experienced international observers feel that there is no reason for the deal to involve the United States in the present crisis, while the man-in-the-street frankly admires Haile Selassie's astuteness. 'He's a smart guy, and has dealt a shrewd blow at Mussolini,'" is a typical comment.

President Roosevelt has not yet signed the Neutrality Bill. No reason is forthcoming for the delay.

REACTION IN ITALY

Indignant Comment By The Press

(Special to "Hong Kong Daily Press")

(By Telegraph, Copyright, Telegraphic Messages Ordinance, 1924. Received, September 1, 4.30 a.m.)

Rome, Aug. 31.

After the mid-day press dazed by and hardly crediting the news of the 75-year Anglo-American concession in Abyssinia, had only printed a brief report refraining from any comment, the evening papers burst out in a furious storm of indignation. "Eng and swallows half of Abyssinia at a single bite. True aspect of British Imperialism revealed behind the League of Nations mask" are among the headlines printed in big type across pages.

The semi-official "Giornale D'Italia" still refuses to believe the news of Britain's colossal robbery in Ethiopia before it is officially confirmed. Should it not prove to be a false alarm, writes the paper then the concession would be a double infringement of the treaties of 1894 and 1902, firstly because these treaties preclude any monopoly and, secondly, because the concession directly affects the zone of interest reserved by Italy.

When Mussolini said at Bolsano that Italy acknowledged all the interests of the British Empire, he meant the rights already recognised or awaiting recognition, but he had no intention of writing out a blank cheque.

Mr. J. A. Lyons, Premier of Australia, deplores the reports in the newspapers that instructions have been sent to the Australian delegate to oppose the impositions of sanctions against Italy.

SILVER MARKET

BLOW TO ITALY

Under the heading "Its oil—not the League of Nations" the "Tribuna" asserts that the so-called Anglo-American concession holders are more British than American.

If not entirely British, and stated that Mr. Anthony Eden's proposal to give Port Zella to Abyssinia is now revealed in a new instructive light.

The paper also takes the standpoint that the concession constitutes a severe infringement of Britain's international obligations even though the agreement is signed by representatives of a private company, which however, asserts the "Tribuna" would not "be so stupid as to negotiate an economic concession in a country which will soon be the scene of a war if it could not reckon with the support of a powerful government behind it."

The conclusion of a treaty at this juncture represents not only a blow against Italian interests but a blow in Italy's back on the part of the Negus and Britain.

After pointing out that the British Government has already sent cruisers to strategically important points in the Mediterranean, the "Tribuna" asks whether she is determined to fight Italy for Abyssinian oil.

OFFICIALS SILENT

In contrast to the press, Italian official quarters are maintaining an attitude of reserve towards the reported concession in Abyssinia. No official statement will be issued as yet, it was declared in Government circles on Saturday evening, since at present the only information available is from newspaper reports.

The Italian Embassy in London, it is understood, has been instructed to make enquiries as to how matters really stand.

Should the granting of the concession be confirmed, it will officially be regarded as an infringement in international treaties on the part of Britain and a breach of the recently made declaration of neutrality given by the United States.

The eventual argument that it is an agreement with a private company will be regarded as untenable. In any case it is stressed, the concession agreement will not succeed in making the Italian Government deviate from its resolution to carry out the East African enterprise.

SENSATION IN PARIS

Paris, Aug. 31. A sensation was created here by the news of the concession affecting half of Abyssinia which has been granted to Anglo-American interests, and the press as well as the public are engaged in excited conjectures as to Italy's reaction to this surprise move.

It is pointed out in reports on the concession which have appeared in the British press, that not only mineral, but all the natural wealth of that part of Abyssinia in question comes under the terms of the concession, thus precluding Italy even sending colonists for agriculture.

The British Government has created what is tantamount to a protectorate by this concession, writes the "Echo de Paris" and has barred the way for Italy.

KING AND MUSSOLINI REVIEW TROOPS

Discipline and Endurance Praised

An imposing review of all troops which participated in the Italian manoeuvres, was held at Bolsano on Saturday by the King of Italy and Signor Mussolini. After the King had passed in front of the regiments in a motor car, the Duce expressed in the sovereign's and his own name an appreciation for the discipline and endurance shown by the officers and men in the course of the manoeuvres.

On previous occasions, he then declared, the reservists had always been demobilised on the conclusion of the manoeuvres but this year they would be retained under the colours. Not only that, but in September a further 200,000 men would be called up so that the Italian forces would attain the intended figure of 1,000,000 men under arms.

"The world must realise," exclaimed Mussolini, "that if the foolish and provocative talk about sanctions continues, Italy will not dispense with a single soldier, sailor or airman, but bring her forces up to the highest possible effective strength."

NAVAL MANOEUVRES

Bolsano, Aug. 31. There are rumours that Italy intends to hold large scale naval manoeuvres in the Mediterranean in view of the possibility of a threat to close the Suez Canal, but official quarters decline to comment on the ground that the subject will come within the measures on which the military authorities have imposed secrecy some time ago.

It is possible that the matter was discussed during the interview which Signor Mussolini held yesterday with the Under-Secretaries of Marine and Air.

MALTA DEFENCE

Malta, Aug. 31. A boom for defence will be laid across the entrance to Malta on September 3.

DAVID AND GOLIATH

Addis Ababa, Aug. 31. The latest issue of the only official publication appearing in Abyssinia, entitled "Light and Freedom," appearing weekly as the Emperor's own organ, contains a proclamation exhorting the populace to remain calm, declaring that aeroplanes cannot destroy earth tanks cannot climb mountains, the use of poison gas is forbidden by international treaties, and that the banks, post offices and public services will remain functioning normally, so that no reason for panic exists.

The proclamation, which it seems has been drawn up by the Emperor personally, says that Abyssinia will fight to the last breath for freedom with death, and cites the story of David and Goliath.

REPORTS DENIED

London, Aug. 30. The British Legation at Addis Ababa has denied a report which was circulated earlier this week that instructions had been issued to British subjects to leave Abyssinia. The British Minister, Sir Sydney Barton, has for some time been authorised, if and when he might think it necessary, to advise those British subjects in Abyssinia, who could conveniently do so, to leave. The moment when the advice should be given has been left to the Minister's discretion, and no such action yet has been taken.

Several weeks ago, missionaries were advised to send their wives and children on furlough, or to concentrate them in Addis Ababa while plans were formulated for concentrating missionaries at various provincial capitals, with the co-operation of the Abyssinian Government if the need for such concentration should ever arise. But in this case also no action has so far been deemed necessary.

BRITISH WARNED

London, Aug. 30. British subjects contemplating enlistment either in the Ethiopian or Italian armies are reminded by a Foreign Office communiqué that such a step would be an offence under the Foreign Enlistment Act of 1870, which forbids any subjects of the United Kingdom or the Empire's possessions to serve without His Majesty's licence in the fighting forces of any foreign state, warring with any other foreign state at peace with Britain.

Furthermore, the Ethiopian Order-in-Council of 1934 provides

In order to correct an impression that apparently has been made in some sections of the foreign press by a strong plea for the return of Germany's mandated colonies published under the heading of "Germany needs breathing space" in Friday's edition of the National Socialist party organ "Völkischer Beobachter," a semi-official news agency points out that this really is a reprint of a recent long leading article in the "Daily Mail." Unfortunately part of the edition of the paper had gone to press before it was discovered that the source of the article had not been mentioned.

AUSTRALIAN ATTITUDE AT GENEVA

Premier Deplores Reports In Newspapers

Canberra, Aug. 31.

Describing the published reports as unauthorised and misleading, Mr. J. A. Lyons, the Australian Premier, after a Cabinet discussion this morning, deplored the statements in the newspapers on Australia's attitude.

Mr. Lyons said that the Government cannot and should not define its attitude on a situation which has not arisen. Care should be taken not to prejudice a delicate situation and make the task of those striving for the maintenance of peace more difficult.

It is learned officially that the instructions cable to Mr. Stanley Bruce reiterated that the Government gives its utmost support to Britain's peace policy.

NO STATEMENT

Sydney, Aug. 31. Mr. Lyons declined to give an official statement in regard to sanctions. He admitted that the Government had sent Mr. Bruce instructions.

The "Sydney Herald" commenting on the brief information available says that since Mr. Bruce occupies a seat on the Council and a unanimous vote is necessary, this means that the League will be unable to impose sanctions.

The "Telegraph" states that after exhaustive discussion the Cabinet sent a long cable to Mr. Bruce who, as President elect of the Council, will make an important speech before the League.

CANADA SILENT

Ottawa, Aug. 30. No formal opinion upon the Italo-Ethiopian question will be issued by the Canadian Government while peace negotiations are progressing, stated Mr. R. B. Bennett, the Prime Minister, to-day commenting upon Australia's reported opposition to sanctions.

Canada's delegates to the League Council have been told that the only war in which we are interested is a war for peace.

Craigengower's Triumphant Day

SECOND TREBLE IN TWO WEEKS

Recreio Surprised And Indians Badly Beaten

Saturday was another triumphant day for the Craigengower Cricket Club when they once again secured the "treble" being the second in two successive weeks and the third this season. Their "A" team accounted for the Police on all three stumps while their "B" defeated the Indians by 24 shots. The Police Junior had to bow to the C. C. C.'s third string. The C.C.C. "A" are now almost assured of the championship.

Surprise was created by the Kowloon Dockers when they beat the strong Portuguese Club by a single shot—thanks to the magnificent work of "Jock" McKelvie, four who incidentally lowered the colours of C. G. Silva's skip record.

Civil Service notched home winner by four shots against the K.C.C. and this was in no small way due to F. J. Jones, who put up a very creditable display.

In the Junior division Talkoo beat the Recreio by 3 shots in a match in which J. Chalmers justified his place at the head of the skips' table by carrying the day.

There was some very high scoring in both divisions. J. Cavanagh and E. Kern each scored a "six" and a "seven." "Sixes" were collected by A. O. Madar, C. S. Rosset, J. Shepherd and A. E. Minu, while for the juniors W. Ward, J. C. Chalmers, G. H. Sheriff and G. E. F. Thompson registered "sixes."

LAWRENCE'S DAY

Galaxy Of Records Shattered

(BY "PLUNGE").

It was indeed "Lawrence's Day" as His Excellency The Officer Administering the Government Sir Thomas Southern so aptly put it when distributing the prizes at the V.R.C. on Saturday at the conclusion of the Annual Swimming Championships of the Colony when Lawrence broke his own record in the 440 yards by 2 1-5 secs. Lawrence crowned his day by annexing five of the Championships and in each broke the existing records for their respective distances.

Another record was shattered by Chan Chun Hing in the 50 yards dash when he clocked 25 2-5 secs, his time being 2-5 of a second better than the existing record.

Kwok Chun Hang retained his 100 yards breast stroke and delighted his many admirers by beating E. Marques by a good 3 seconds but the time returned was not as good as his previous attempt last year.

Ed da Roza was once again the acme of perfection in the Diving and delighted his "fans" by winning it once again.

THE EVENTS

A perfect start was made by the competitors in the 50 yards dash when L. Oliveira had just slightly the better of Chan Chun Hing with S. V. Gittins a close third. At the end of the first stretch Chan made an excellent turn which advantage he held on for the last 25 yards and by dint of a great spurt he streamed home winner to establish a new record. Oliveira was a close second being 2-5 of a second behind with Gittins taking up the third place.

Only two competitors faced the starter for the 440 yards. Lawrence who started with L. Roza Pereira did not appear to be quite himself for he was swimming in a half hearted way. For the first four lengths Pereira had the better of Lawrence and after the fifth the "merman" slowly regained his ascendancy and to creep further away from his opponent. He was then setting up a rather fast pace and this soon told on Pereira who gradually lagged behind but still clinging grimly to Lawrence's heels.

Lawrence swam the race with perfect rhythm of strokes and he kept a very straight course whereas Pereira was inclined to wander off his track now and again. Lawrence kept up his earlier pace and it was evident that another record would go by the board. He came home a length ahead of Pereira amidst tumultuous applause while the second man also received his due for the gallant way in which he swam the race. It was revealed after the race that Lawrence was suffering from a very bad cold and that he swam against the advice of many people. His victory is, therefore, all the more meritorious.

THE BREAST STROKE

From the start of the 100 yards Breast Stroke it was evident that Kwok Chun Hang would get away with it and after the second length he got ahead of Marques who was trying his best to keep up with the pace set up by the leader. Kwok's turning stood him in good stead and his win in the end was well merited. Marques was second and was given a good race by the third man.

Ed da Roza was given a very good fight for the Diving honours by S. H. Wong while the rest of the competitors all excelled themselves. The standard displayed was high indeed and some of the executions were intricate.

At the conclusion of the meet Mr. F. W. R. T. Boss, vice-chairman of the V.R.C. congratulated the competitors and officials alike for the success of the meet.

Before distributing the prizes Sir Thomas Southern apologized for the absence of Lady Southern who was indisposed. He reminded the gathering of the progress Lawrence had made in his career and congratulated him on his victory. He also congratulated the winners of the other events and wished them all success in their future careers. The speaker also paid tribute to Kwok Chun Hang and thanked the officials for their assistance.

AMERICANS BEATEN

A close and thrilling game was witnessed on the La Salle ground on Saturday when the U.S.S. Mindanao nobled out the Hong Kong Americans by the odd run in nine.

The game was keenly fought out from start to finish and both pitchers were in the limelight.

Fielding was very tight on both sides but the Hong Kong Americans were inclined to be slow and erratic at times.

The score stood at 4 runs all at of the six innings. The Americans had a good chance of scoring that sorely needed run, but the airtight fielding of the Mindanao prevented them from doing so.

At the last time at bat Horton reached first on a hit, advanced to second and third on the catcher's over-throw to second and won the game for his team when he crossed the plate on Moore's hit.

INTERNATIONAL BOWLS

Scotland Surprisingly Defeated

Two games in the International Lawn Bowls competition were decided yesterday. India surprisingly defeated the much fancied Scotland's four by 24 shots to 10 at the Recreio green. India played with the team as advertised while Scotland was without the services of A. M. Holland. R. Duncan coming into No. 3 with J. C. Brown skipping.

India thoroughly deserved their victory for on the day's play they were heads and shoulders above the Scottish team. A. M. Omar in particular played a great game and his bowling yesterday would have shamed many a first division player. India's team was more consistent whereas the Scottish team was erratic.

Up to the 11th head India was leading by 9 shots to 7 and from there onward till the 19th head Scotland was unable to score. On the 20th head they managed to obtain a three. India scored a 4 on the 14th head.

The standard displayed by the Indians augurs well for their future in this competition. The teams were:—
India: E. el Arculli, A. M. Omar, D. Rumjahn, U. M. Omar (Skip) 24.
Scotland: P. T. Farrell, J. Shepherd, B. Duncan, J. C. Brown (Skip) 10.

MALAYA THROUGH

In the other game played on the Talkoo green, Malaya accounted for the Philippines by 26 shots to 12.

Malaya was well served by the whole team whose understanding did more for them than their bowling. Philippines was unable to get together and despite the heroic efforts made by R. Bass they were unable to do much.

KOWLOON.EDUCATION IN HONG KONGComprehensive
Report Issued

The Director of Education has issued a comprehensive report for the year 1934, consisting of a review of the year, with reports by the Inspectors of English Schools, the Inspectors of Vernacular Schools, and the Director of the Technical Institute.

To these are added several tables giving full particulars as to fees, etc., of the individual schools and a graph showing the number of pupils between 1913 and 1934.

In a preface to the report the Director of Education notes that in 1934 there were 1,071 schools. (The definition of a "school" in the Education Ordinance being a place where ten or more persons are being or are habitually taught), in the Colony, with 73,348 pupils in attendance, as compared with 72,917 in 1933.

Of the 1,066 schools controlled by the Education Department in 1934 twenty were provided schools. The cost of their equipment and maintenance is a charge on the colonial revenues and, except for a few temporary appointments, the teachers are civil servants on the permanent establishment of the Colony.

Of the 1,015 unprovided schools 334 are partly dependent on assistance from public funds. The remaining 717 unprovided schools are subject to registration and inspection by the Education Department but receive no financial assistance from funds at the disposal of the Director of Education.

There are five uncontrolled schools.

MAMAK QUIBBLE

Army Players For Civilian Clubs

One of the items to be discussed at the Annual General Meeting of the Mamak Hockey Tournament will be the question of whether Army players are eligible to play for Civilian Clubs.

Many Civilian Clubs are averse to this change and many reasons have been advanced on it. Several representatives from the Civilian Clubs were interviewed by a representative of the Daily Press and their views are that if Army players are allowed to play for the Civilian Clubs much of the interest in this competition will be gone.

Army players they averred have their own tournaments to compete for and their playing in the tournament for the Civilian teams will rob much of the keenness of game. Moreover their standard is a class by itself and if they are to play for a civilian team there will be a scramble for Army players. The Army players we are told are from the Indian Regiments where the best hockey players are to be found. Let us hope that better counsels prevail at the meeting and that the desirability of these players serving for a Civilian team be done away with.

Toronto, Aug. 31. Seventeen-year-old Helen Stephens, established a world record for 220 yards in 23.6 seconds, beating the previous record set by Stella Walsh of 24.3 seconds at Kansas City on June 10 this year.
